

From Solomon bringing the Ark into the Finished Temple

To Rehoboam His son becoming King and through poor leadership and disobedience to God the leads in the division of Israel, Jeroboam becomes the king of Israel and builds a new temple in Dan

The Northern Kingdom or Israel, 10 tribes

The Southern Kingdom or Judah, Simeon, Judah, and Benjamin

What was the negative about the split?

Was there anything positive?

Abijah Succeeds Rehoboam

Jeroboam dies

Asa Becomes King of Judah after Abijah's death

Asa is a good king removing the Altars, high places, sacred pillars, and the Asherim

1. Jehoshaphat Becomes King of Judah

2. Jehoshaphat learns “The Battle is the Lord’s”

3. Hezekiah learns “God is Faithful to His Covenant”

Why do you think that God told Jehoshaphat to fight the Battle by just Standing by?

Why was it so important for Hezekiah to reinstall the Passover for Judah?

Why was this a critical time for Josiah to rediscover the Law that had been hidden in the Temple?

Why under Zedekiah was Judah finally destroyed, along with the Temple, and then many of the inhabitants carried into captivity?

Why was it important that they knew the captivity would be limited to 70 years only?

Why do you think Judah survived captivity when Israel the Northern Kingdom did not?

1. How can we make our battle “The Lord’s battle”?

2. Why is so important to keep God’s “Law” central to our lives and worship?

3. How might we respond if we found ourselves judged as Judah was judged?
